

Steve Zolin

CV Highlights

In June 2021 Zolin installed six large paintings in the Peninsula Hotel for a year-long exhibition in the Gotham Lounge. In 2018 he installed three permanent sculptures in the lobby of the AC New York Times Square Hotel on West 40th Street in Manhattan. The year before, he executed eight 11' paintings for the Windlass Restaurant inspired by the Grand Hotel Era of Lake Hopatcong, NJ. In 2015 he completed a 28' mural in Manhattan's First Park for the New York City Parks Department, and could be seen at Scope New York at the Untitled Projects booth. Zolin was a featured solo artist at the 2012 (E)merge Art Fair in Washington, DC. and his work was seen in the 24th International Juried Show at the Visual Arts Center of NJ, curated by Susan Kismaric of the Museum of Modern Art, NY. His installation "Unstraightness," explored space, gesture, and movement, and was sponsored by Chashama and The National Endowment for the Arts. Other highlights include a mural for Senator Joseph Lieberman's home synagogue in Connecticut and a solo exhibition at the Clifton Arts Center. His work is also represented in numerous private collections.
